Hi Laurie,
I love you
Allie

Lorie,
Even though it
been a short while that I've known you, I feel that it's been a real experience (Good or bad? I haven't figured that out yet) Oh well. It's probably taught me some sort of lesson.
Anyway, good luck in everything you do,
Chris Benz

Lorie,
You are a real doll and I hope you have a great summer. Be good, but not too good.

Frank

Lorie,
You're a real sweet girl and we've got to get together again in the future sum it all up! (HE!)
Miss Sparks

Dear Lorie,
you're a real sweet girl
and I'll see you in September-Love, Madeline

actually Lorie (you don't mind me calling you that, do you dearie?) you're not really too neat. But you're O.K. Lorie you've done so much for me this semester - really good things.
Naturally, there were a billion funny times - like the 10¢ horse at the store.

Lorie, whenever we are sitting in Barbarina's room and I hear that train whistle, I think about you and that wonderful, rusty old track, and that paper Emerson wrote -
"I who alone am, I who see nothing in nature whose existence I can affirm with equal evidence to my own, behold now the semblance of my being, in all its height, variety, and curiosity, reiterated in a foreign form; so that a friend may well be rectored the masterpiece of nature." Thanks, love, Mook

(+ track here) (Mook?)

LOR,
JOB are SWELL, sometimes I think I have a lot of friends but then I see you every day and my illusion is destroyed, between you and Patterson I am pretty bad off. Remember Beck, Mrs. K, Lab, Mrs. B, book reports, etc. I'm awfully glad you got a B on your book report.

 You are a real honest to Emerson said "A friend is a true". As a gentleman... he's a friend. You certainly are the momentous occasions. Well, here's to all of WOODY'S (hee), Piece of P.izza, ice cream cones at the Sweet Shop (that includes sneaking out of the house with the chop & malasses on our breath) and scaring people by ~~you~~ jumping into SANTA'S SLEIGH a lot & I think you're too much.

 I can say for a great jaunt that I've planned for this summer.

To Lori,
 I'm so upset. I thought I was going to have a real nice S.D. Board until you came along.
 Thanks a lot; and would you please leave to cook!!
 You're a real doll Lori (I can't capitalize) I'm really looking forward to working with you. I'm sure our friendship will last forever. You're adorable.
 Love & kisses,
 Jan

Lori,
 to a really sweet gal. I have known you for about 2 years
 but I really do hope we can become better friends in the coming semester.
 Have a really
 litchy summer,
 and don't forget you got a C+ on your book report.
 I guess Barbarini
 just doesn't know
 you real talents.
 Be good and stay sweet,
 (and skat-up!)
 (Just kidding)
 Love ya,

 Jan

In 1953 the first Tomahawk was published. It was a small paper bound book hardly more than a pamphlet, but it was the beginning of a tradition. A tradition which will be held even through the hard years of building soon to begin, and into our beautiful new school.

Foreword

From time immemorial, things have been changing, always adopting a new form, always being refined and improved. Never has there been an institution which has been able to endure, unchanged, the passage of years. It is true that the scythe of Father Time may only hack away the edges of a tradition, leaving the core unspoiled; yet the tradition can never remain completely intact. So it is with Birmingham High School, a tradition which has kept pace with the changing of the times.

Zori Fail;

6-18-64

I'm very hurt to think you didn't save a whole page without a circle just for me. Boo hoo! Can't wait till this weekend and the

Beach

peh!

Yet, speaking but of the buildings themselves, Birmingham is behind the age, she has not quite weathered many a severe storm each passing year has left her exterior a bit more shabby and a bit least fit to represent her great traditions. The insistent voice of progress has pounded at the delapidated doors of Birmingham long enough, however, and now, new buildings are finally being constructed. Beautifully streamlined modern edifices are being erected on the site of the old Birmingham, yet this gleaming exterior will not dull by comparison the spirit of Birmingham, for this fine spirit will long endure.

Oh Zori guy we've sure had fun this semester and I know we'll have fun this summer too - See ya Saturday

Love Winnie

P.S. I love you, and all my love!

MRS. INSKEEP
Head Counselor

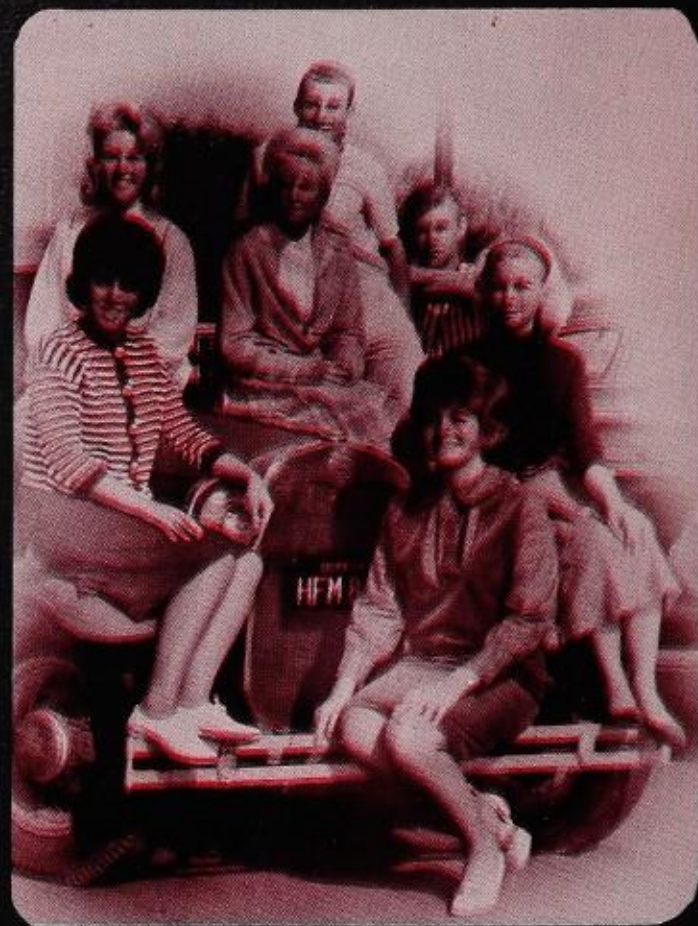

These are the people behind the scenes at Birmingham High. Despite the fact the Counselors Office has many responsibilities, we owe them our gratitude for a smooth-running, well-kept school.

As head Register Mr. Potter has a great responsibility checking and keeping track of attendance. Though a thankless job, this is among the most important positions on the administrative staff.

Mighty Aldecians forever
 Look Ahead to future years
 In courage we'll endeavor
 The conquest of all our fears
 The torch of our knowledge to guide us
 Brings success and fond memories
 We'll raise our banner triumphant
 As it waves in the breeze

And America, our country
 Where Freedom shall reign evermore
 Holds out her arms to greet us
 Aldecians of Winter '64
 Holding aloft our colors
 Royal Blue and gleaming white
 In our hearts we will stay together
 As we strive for what is right

Oh Va-ladons the Senior class of summer sixty-four,

For high goals we'll always seek both now and ever more.

Now wisdom is the treasure bold and knowledge is its key,

With mighty colors red and white we'll search for things to be.

To Birmingham we owe our thanks for knowledge we have gained,

We'll dedicate our years to you for you taught us not in vain.

USC Honors Program

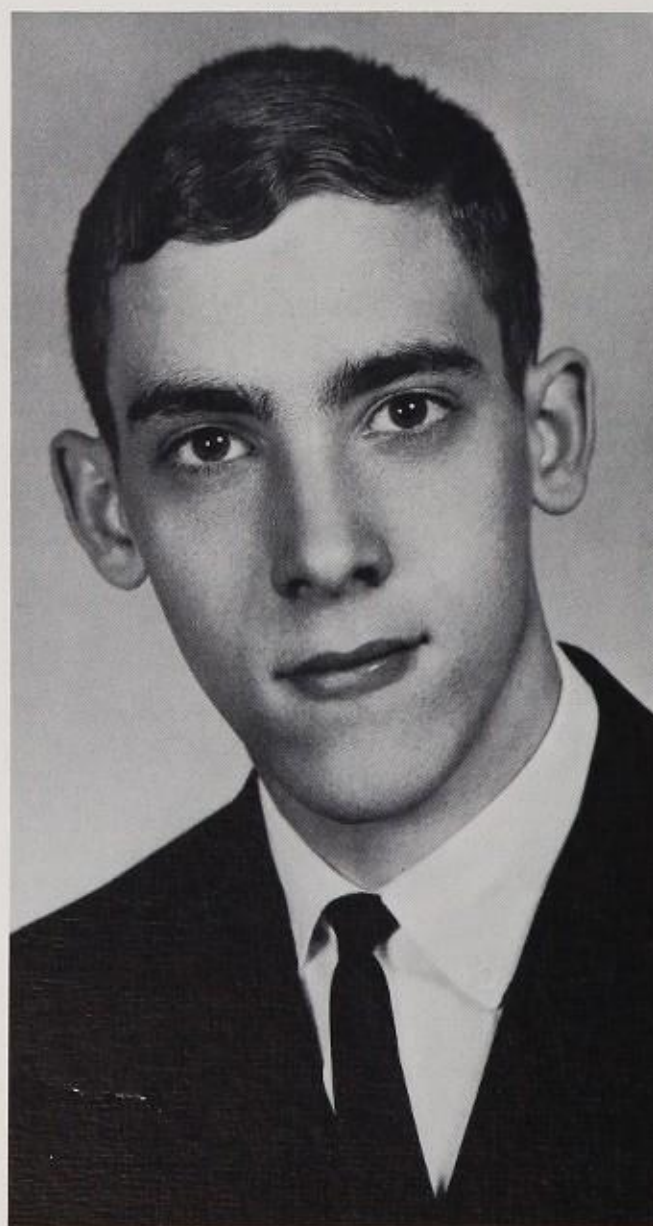

Lindsey Miller has been a very active student during her years at Birmingham. She has served as Commissioner of Publications and as Chief Justice of Student Court. She has also been the President of Damsels, Vice-President of Principia, and Vice-President of the Para-Medical Club. She was also a member of the Birmingham Girls' Swim Team and holds two city records. She has also served on Organization Council and has been a member of CSF. In 1961 Lindsey had a 4.0 average at USC in the Resident Honors Program.

Every year the University of Southern California offers its Resident Honors Program for High School Seniors. The purpose of this program is to allow students who have completed their junior year in high school to take a year of college studies including those necessary for completion of requirements for graduation from their respective high schools. Nominations for participation must be made by the principal or counselor of the student's high school and must be approved by the superintendent of the school district.

STUDENT

Lorie —

I have studied your annual thoroughly & have unanimously decided that this is the most cherished spot in the annual for me to sign. It has been a terrible semester being here in art with you, but just terrible enough, so then I hope we can have maybe just one more class this coming semester together!! You are by far one of the nicest persons with one of the greatest personalities I have ever met — And believe me have you ever met a person with that combination? It's quite an experience.

Well I'm running out of space so all I can say now — I'll be a heck of a summer & I'll be seeing ya' soon — like in two minutes when I return your

Student Body Officers

My fellow students:

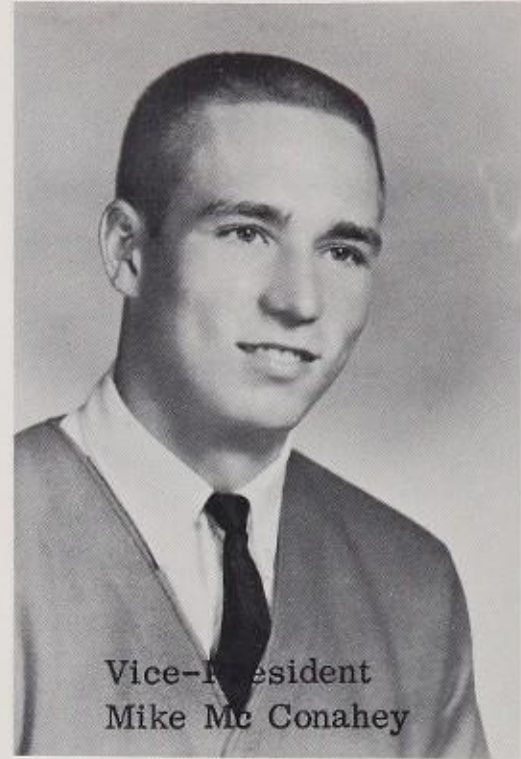

I cannot find the adequate words to express my deep sorrow in leaving the school I have become so fond of, Birmingham. Since the 7th grade, I have watched it slowly mature into the top school in the city, both scholastically and athletically.

This was our first semester as a complete senior high. We were able to try and do things that were never possible before and I think that is the reason Board of Control was so successful. Under the guidance of Mr. Starer and the cooperation of the administration, student government took great strides in bringing greater representation to you, the student body. All this, coupled with a tremendous football team, made this our best semester at Birmingham.

To the faculty, administration, and especially Mr. Starer, my sincerest thanks for this year and all other years spent at Bravetown. I would also like to wish my fellow graduates and classmates a special good-bye and good luck.

Thank you,

Fellow Braves:

This semester has been the happiest and most rewarding of all my years at Birmingham. In every field, we have reached new heights.

Our athletic teams have set the pace in each sport. Many of our athletes have won high honors.

In student government, we have tried many new plans. All of these have turned out well thanks to your participation and interest.

There are three other organizations besides Board of Control that represent the student body in student government. They are Organization Council, House of Representatives, and Senate. Organization Council is composed of a representative from every club and organization on campus. It expresses the views of these organizations to student government. The House of Representatives and the Senate combine to form Student Congress. The House of Representatives is composed of one representative from each homeroom, and expresses the views of the general student body. The Senate expresses the feelings of the different grade levels, and is composed of four representatives from each level. Student Congress acts as a check against Board of Control, and it can block any action by a two-thirds vote.

DAMSELS W64

The best way for a girl in the tenth grade to start off her high school career is to join Damsels. The Damsels, by serving the school, gives them a chance to become more acquainted with the school, and how it functions. Damsels also gives the girls a chance to feel they are more a part of the school.

Sparked by a great all-around performance from Laura Halem, editor-in-chief and most outstanding writer, Coach Irwin Clyman's Varsity journalists have completed another successful season serving Birmingham High School's 4th estate.

Halem who was chosen All-City editor of the year by the Los Angeles Journalism teachers Association, is one of the finest journalists ever to write for the Courier.

Editorial editor, Denny Marr, columnist, editorial writer, and rabble rouser, led the staff in controversial articles, and was most valuable player.

Sports Editor Martin Zacks once again led the team in offense, as he managed to anger every other school in the West Valley League with barbed comments in the sports column "Totem Pole."

Feature Editor Sandra Mitchell enchanted Brave readers with her feature articles, humor, and news, as she created for each issue what was laughingly referred to as "The junk page."

Other outstanding members of the staff were Sherry Machan, Carol Brennglass, Jackie Rice, Gerrie Peterson, Larry Siegal, Art Caldwell, and Dave Barton who was voted rookie-of-the-year.

Coach Clyman, who guided the staff all year, was voted the staff patience award, for his devotion to duty.

A three year struggle that saw Birmingham lose the City Championship in football twice, was ended Saturday, December 14, 1963 when the Braves defeated the Romans of Los Angeles High School 21-14, bringing to the San Fernando Valley its first clear city title.

Birmingham coach, George Goff, had missed the city title two times. In 1961, the Braves suffered a loss to Manual Arts in the finals, and in 1962, a loss in the semi-finals again to Manual Arts.

In 1963, however, Goff and his team were not to be denied.

Never has one team ever so completely dominated the West Valley League. In rolling to their third straight West Valley championship, the Braves scored 267 points while giving up only 13 points. The team shut out five of their league opponents, and broke or tied many league records including most yards gained in a season, best offensive average per game, and most consecutive victories.

The City Champs were rated fourth in the nation, placed six men on the All-City teams, eleven men on the All-Valley teams and were honored by the Los Angeles City Council for their great season. In addition, Marv Adamo, Birmingham end, was chosen All-City Player of the Year.

The heroes of the Birmingham triumph were many. All-City team members were Marv Adamo, Bill Hayhoe, Mike Scarpace, Bill Brucker, Craig Shusterick, and Frank Arrigo. All-Valley gridgers were Mike McConahey, Dave Enrico, Greg Buchanan, Don McSwain, Mike Dexter and the all city selections.

Other standouts were Don Pomeranz, Bob Mathieson, Dave Drysdale, Bernie Carr, Ron Heiman, and Randy Peterson.

The unsung hero of the season was line coach Lynn Lomen. It was the Lomen-guided defensive wall that gave up a mere 59 points in ten games, held Granada Hills to one yard gained, limited Cleveland to minus 4 yards rushing, and in what was perhaps the greatest victory in Birmingham's entire history, shut out East Valley League Champion, Van Nuys High School, and their All-City full-back Jon Huss, 48-0.

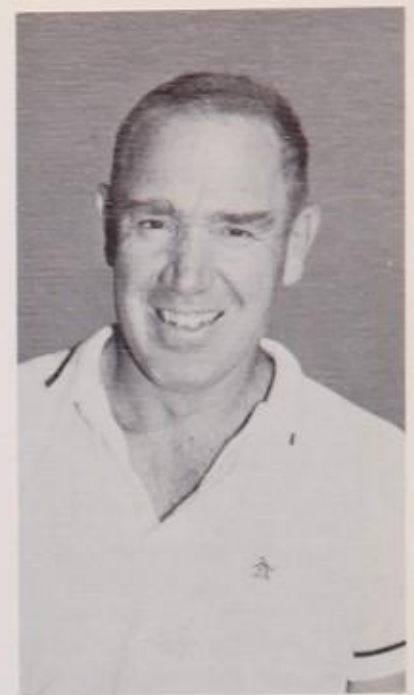

Action off the field as well as on highlighted the 1963 football season. First was the challenge issued by the many opposing schools questioning Birmingham's sportsmanship. Later, a controversy arose over having to play Van Nuys High twice in two weeks in Pre-season scheduling.

Despite this outside pressure, the Brave gridgers rolled up a magnificent record of ten wins and no losses, proving to all that they are the greatest high school team ever to appear in the valley.

Congratulations to Coaches Goff and Lomen, and the entire Varsity team for an outstanding season.
